MAKING AN IMPACT

2015/16 ANNUAL REPORT
VOLUNTEER AND DONOR RECOGNITION
Our Mission
Through excellence in education, Charlotte Country Day School develops the potential of each student by fostering intellectual curiosity, principled character, ethical leadership, and a responsibility to serve.

Affirmation Of Community
Charlotte Country Day School is committed to living as an authentic, inclusive community. Our pursuit of this commitment to community recognizes and affirms the richness brought by difference and discovered through commonality.

For more information about our Mission, Key Values, and Affirmation of Community, please visit charlottecountryday.org.
Every day, I have the privilege of seeing firsthand the impact of a Country Day education on students past and present. I know it is an experience that comes as the result of our community’s collective dedication to our mission. I also know that making a lasting impact often requires complex planning and execution to achieve outstanding results over many years.

Seventy-five years ago, our school was founded by visionaries who believed the time was right for a new type of school. They did their research, rallied forward-thinking families, and shaped a new future for many students. While our campus facilities, the ways in which we deliver education, and the diversity of our community have evolved since then, the thread that links us all, from 1941 to 2016, is a commitment to our mission and key values. Even back in our earliest years, school literature pledged to provide students with a “balanced education, a variety of learning experiences, self-discipline, and desirable attitudes toward community responsibility.”

For 75 years we have drawn from the strength and determination of people. Committed, caring, and talented teachers have provided an exceptional academic experience for students then, now, and always. They shape our students into leaders, innovators, and problem solvers, who with empathy, compassion, and grit, become alumni who make an impact on our community, country, and world.

Our students’ excellent preparation for the future is made possible by committed adults in our community who collectively believe in our mission and key values. This year’s Annual Report celebrates the impact that you make on our students through your time, talent, and treasure. I am deeply grateful for your commitment to giving our students an unsurpassed opportunity to head out into the world ready to make their own impact. On behalf of the faculty and staff, thank you for supporting Country Day.

Sincerely,

Mark Reed
Head of School

I am honored and humbled to serve my second year as your Board Chair during this special 75th anniversary year. As I consider the forward-thinking leadership of the founding Board and the commitment they showed to establishing a new kind of school, I am inspired to build upon that legacy. I am pleased to report that our school has never been stronger, and that the future looks very bright.

Once again, the 2015–16 school year brought record enrollment with 1,660 students and reenrollment of 95 percent. We continued our legacy of firsts as the first school in the state to travel to a newly opened Cuba and the first area school to receive Common Sense Media Digital Citizenship Certification. The Class of 2016 included a Morehead-Cain Scholar, 22 collegiate-athletes, and $8.6 million in scholarship offers. We are preparing our students well for college and beyond.

Financial stability makes it possible for us to continue to innovate and further improve the student experience. Once again, we saw record fundraising from our Annual Fund and the endowment fluctuates with the market around $50 million. Most exciting is the charitable giving toward capital projects we realized during the 2015–16 fiscal year. These early generous gifts of support are allowing us to move forward on our longer term strategic and facilities plan, ensuring we will continue to make an impact on generations of students to come.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank everyone who has made Country Day a philanthropic priority. Together, we are making an impact on the lives of students today and tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Art Roselle
Chair, Board of Trustees
Over the past 45 years, Country Day has been an integral part of the life of our family. Through the experiences of our children, and now our grandchildren, we’ve seen firsthand the benefits of innovative and caring teachers who help students become their very best selves. That teaching excellence, along with so many opportunities to grow as leaders and develop a strong sense of self and care for others, makes a Country Day education invaluable. We’re happy to pass the opportunity for a Country Day education on to deserving students and families.”

Charlie Fonville, established the Fonville Family Endowed Scholarship Fund in 2005
“Education is very important in my family, and my parents made a commitment early in my life to give me every opportunity to learn, even though money has always been tight. I came to Country Day as a sophomore because my parents wanted to keep me safe from the war going on in my home country. They were able to pay full tuition my first two years, and I also work part-time to help. But this past year, the economic situation in Ukraine has become much worse. My family is deeply grateful for the support that the school has given us. I fell in love with Country Day and I’m extremely thankful to finish my senior year as a Buccaneer.”

International Club president, Diversity Awareness Forum, International Student Board, National Honor Society, Aquilifer, French Club, Environmental Awareness Club, and Film Club

CREATING A DIVERSE ACADEMIC COMMUNITY

• Since our founding, Country Day has been committed to financial aid to support qualified students in need of assistance. With today’s enrollment of 1,660 students, more than 270 students are impacted each year.

• The last four years of graduates receiving financial aid include recipients of Morehead-Cain and Park Scholarships, military academy appointments, and student-athletes playing at Division I, II, and III colleges and universities.

• Students on financial aid contribute to the school in significant ways, including as Honor Council members, Student Government leaders, Scholastic Art winners, award-winning musicians, club officers, athletic team captains, and academic team winners.
We are so grateful for the countless opportunities that Country Day provides our kids. As an example, during Addison's recent trip to Hungary organized by the Office of International Studies, they visited several countries and countless amazing places. Yet the most meaningful part of the trip was the friendships he developed with local families and the bonds created with other Country Day students and faculty. The positive impact this experience has made on our child's life is just one of the reasons we make Country Day a philanthropic priority. The emphasis on global experiences—in Charlotte and abroad—is giving our children the kind of education we value.”

Ken and Carrie Garcia, parents of four current students
“I am grateful that Country Day provides students with amazing global opportunities to become more culturally aware and gain a broader perspective. The world is becoming more interconnected, and building one-on-one relationships with others helps us to grow as people because we see firsthand that we are really all more alike than different. I have become more confident and willing to take risks because of my experiences abroad.”

Caroline Beltz ’17
Cabo Sister School Exchange, China Study Trip, Morocco Study Trip, Spain School Year Abroad

“On my first trip to Cabo in Middle School, I bonded so well with my host family I just wanted to do more. Even when I was out of my comfort zone, like in China because my host family didn’t speak English, I still had an incredible experience. The opportunity to travel internationally is so special. For me, being in foreign countries, seeing history or culture first-hand, and getting to meet interesting people makes the learning so much more impactful.”

Margaret Beltz ’19
Cabo Sister School Exchange, England Sister School Exchange, China Study Trip, Hungary Service Trip

A WORLD OF OPPORTUNITY

• In 2015, Country Day was the first school in North Carolina to visit Cuba. Other new travel experiences included service learning in India and Hungary.

• In fall 2015, Upper School students initiated community forums around the European refugee crisis, and the junior class interacted with refugees from around the world while assisting Refugee Support Services on Community Service Day.
I make my gift each year on December 12, the anniversary of the day I received my acceptance letter to Brown University. Not only is giving back to Country Day how I express my gratitude for successfully preparing me for college, but also it means ensuring that other students, across many different backgrounds, can be afforded this invaluable privilege. As a college senior preparing to enter the workforce, I am constantly reminded that Country Day shaped a lot more than my ability to succeed at Brown; it instilled in me a profound love of learning that drives me to challenge myself and think critically in all my endeavors.”

Eddie Mansius ’13
“I have one of the best jobs on campus because I get to work with amazing seniors who each have their own incredible story to tell. My colleagues and I in the College Counseling Office have the great privilege of working with our Upper School students to find the perfect next stop on their educational journey. And we know that their amazing stories were created each and every day, in every classroom, on the playing fields, the stage, and in the community from the moment they entered Country Day. We also know that the Annual Fund impacts all of our students by making Country Day more than just a great education—it’s an exceptional experience that shapes future leaders.”

Katie Elsasser, Director of College Counseling

COUNTRY DAY READY FOR COLLEGE

• In addition to three current Morehead-Cain Scholars at UNC-Chapel Hill, Country Day is also represented by a Jefferson Scholar at UVA, a Park Scholar at NC State, a Presidential Scholar at Georgia Tech, and a Robertson Scholar at UNC/Duke.

• 22 members of the Class of 2016 are student-athletes at such fine institutions as Colgate, Cornell, Dartmouth, Davidson, MIT, and UNC-Chapel Hill.

• The Class of 2016 earned more than $8.6 million in scholarship offers.
As a graduate, I know the value of a Country Day education in preparing its students for the future. And now, as a parent, I see that the school is even stronger in providing a JK-12 experience that balances the fundamentals with the intentional use of technology to deepen understanding. I love that the Lower School continues to teach cursive, because that is so important to brain development, while integrating coding into the curriculum because that is the language of the future. I give to Country Day because I see every day how the school is getting my children prepared for the future in every way.”

Lorin Silverman Stiefel ’91, parent of two Lower School children
“When it comes to supporting teachers in the classroom, the Country Day community is simply amazing. The impact of donors can be seen in initiatives like the Hour of Code week we organized for students in JK–8. Coding is increasingly being viewed as a new ‘literacy,’ a skill so vital to understanding the world that many argue all students should master it—just like reading, writing, and math. Coding not only prepares our students for a variety of careers, it also demystifies how the world works and develops problem solving and computational thinking skills. I love working at a school that is looking critically at our computer science curriculum and thinking long-term about how to integrate engineering, design, thinking, and coding/computer programming skills into our program in meaningful ways.”

_Adele Paynter, Head of Lower School_

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

• Our strong culture of giving and sound financial management allowed us to roll out our 1:1 technology program without increasing tuition or charging additional fees to parents.

• We are the first area school to be named a Common Sense Digital Citizenship Certified School.

• Upper School students advanced college-level biochemistry research using one of the school’s 3D printers, found in each division.

We are truly grateful for the commitment members of our community made in the past year toward realizing our school’s strategic vision. These gifts serve as important cornerstones of a long-term master plan to update Country Day’s Cannon Campus and prepare students for the future.

In January, the Dowd Foundation, in conjunction with a personal commitment from Frank ’74 and Janis Dowd and support from the Charlotte Pipe and Foundry Company, made a $3 million pledge to name the new Dowd Student Center—a flexible, community space that will support nutritional programming through age-appropriate cafeterias, as well as faculty and student collaboration and programming.

Strong math and science education will continue to drive this country forward in terms of innovation. Investing in this way at Country Day is an opportunity to not only carry the sciences forward, but also to give back to a place that has so influenced our lives.”

Steve Purdy ’87
This summer, the Purdy Family—including Verl and Sandra Purdy, Steve ‘87 and Beth Purdy, J. Scott and Claire Purdy, and James Yuhas and Susan Purdy Yuhas ‘85—made a $3 million pledge to name the Purdy Center for Science and Mathematics. This state-of-the-art academic building will drive innovative instruction and student research.

The Oak Society recognizes those who include the school in their wills or estate plans. Their gifts express a deep commitment to sustaining Country Day well beyond their lifetimes, supporting our students for years to come.

“Country Day has been such an important part of my life. Including Country Day in my estate plans through a gift of life insurance was a logical and prudent way for me to give back to a place that has impacted my family and me in so many positive ways.”

THE SELWYN SOCIETY

Country Day established the Selwyn Society to recognize and honor supporters who make gifts of $1,500 or more to the Annual Fund. The loyal support of this generous group of leaders is critical to giving Country Day students distinctive academic experiences. Head of School Mark Reed acknowledges members of the Selwyn Society every fall at a special reception.

“I give back to Country Day to honor my teacher and friend, Edward E. Kelly. The lessons he imparted to his students extended far beyond the classroom, chief among them being that thorough and intense preparation were critical to success. I’m forever indebted to Mr. Kelly and the many other magnificent faculty members I had the privilege to learn from during my time at Country Day.”

Volunteering our time has strengthened our connection with Country Day and given us better insight into the school as a whole. Through our participation in Big Saturday, the auction, the Parents’ Association, and the Boosters Club, we’ve helped enrich the educational experience for our children and all Country Day students; and we’ve made some lifelong friends along the way.”

I believe Country Day is an even stronger school now than when I was a student. It is a dynamic place that has improved with the advancement of time and technology, but at the core the traditional values that date back 75 years have remained. My Country Day experience has guided me every step of my education and professional career. More specifically, the teachers I had not only taught me in the classroom, but also nurtured, guided, and invested in me. The teachers at Country Day are what set it apart. We give because we want to honor those who have shaped my life and continue to shape my children’s lives on a daily basis.”

I give because Country Day faculty taught me to think critically, ask questions, and above all, have confidence in myself. In college and now in my career, these lessons have been far more valuable than any substantive content I learned. I made my gift in memory of my former teacher, Señor Win Robinson. He knew how to challenge students to stretch beyond the limits of what they believed they were capable of learning.”

Notification of gifts received in Win’s memory warms the hearts of my whole family and inspires profound gratitude. Each precious donation brings to our minds countless instances of ‘Win in action’ over four decades at his beloved Country Day. Each also aptly honors his steadfast dedication to students and colleagues alike, as well as his legacy of oral proficiency as an essential outcome of modern language instruction.”

Welcome to these trustees, joining the Board for the 2016–17 school year.

Dr. Lauren Browne is a gastroenterologist with Carolinas Healthcare System, who has been in practice for 20 years. She received her medical degree from Boston University School of Medicine. She completed her residency at Boston University and a fellowship in gastrointestinal and hepatology at the University of Virginia. Lauren is a POCIS member and was a branding ambassador for Country Day’s recent refreshed brand process. Her husband, Dr. Richard Browne, is a cardiologist affiliated with multiple area hospitals, including Carolinas Medical Center and Carolinas Medical Center-Pineville. He received his medical degree from Boston University School of Medicine and has been in practice for 21 years. The Browns have a son in third grade.

Before NationsBank, Stoney served in the U.S. Air Force where he developed, implemented, and supported secure telecommunications systems worldwide. Stoney is on the advisory board for the Charlotte Minority Economic Development Initiative and is a CMS Parent University advisory board member. He is also the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce’s 2015 Executive Committee Public Policy co-chair; involved with Access Charlotte, a mentoring program for young minority business leaders; and an Advisory Council member for the Bechtler Museum of Modern Art. He holds an undergraduate degree from Princeton and an MBA from UNC-Chapel Hill. Stephen and his wife, Parker, have been active in the community in a variety of ways. Stephen was instrumental in forming the Catawba County United Way Youth Council and has served as a United Way Board member. Parker has volunteered with the Country Day Parents’ Association and is an Annual Fund volunteer. The Shufords are supporters of Discovery Place, WFAE, Safe Alliance, and the Catawba Lands Conservancy. They have also served as hosts or sponsors for events for the Levine Museum of the New South, the Mint Museum, and Pat’s Place, a child advocacy center. The Shufords have two sons in third and fifth grades.
